

HDLC Municipal Council Candidate Positioning Chart (as at 23 August 2018 - subject to change)

Election Position	Mayor	Ward 1	Ward 2	Ward 3	Ward 4	Ward 5	Ward 6	Ward 7
Choosing any of these candidates would generally be positive for the labour community in Hamilton. If they are incumbents, it generally means they have a proven track record of supporting labour initiatives. If they are not an incumbent, it means that their survey responses not only met the requirement of supporting our municipal concerns, but that they also understood the issues. (alphabetically)		Sophie Geffros Lyla Miklos	Jason Farr (I)	Nrinder Nann	Sam Merulla (I)	Juanita Maldonado		Joseph Kazubek Jim McColl Geraldine McMullen
We've divided this section into two parts: On the top, candidates who indicate they support labour, but have not always given us rationale or action to back it up. On the bottom, candidates who say they're supportive of something, but either haven't backed it up with their rationale or actions. (alphabetically)	Fred Eisenberger* (I) Ute Schmid Jones Nathalie Xian Xi Yan <hr/> Jim Davis	Sharon Elizabeth Cole Ela Eroglu Linda Narducci Maureen Wilson <hr/> Jason Allen Carol Lazich	Cameron Kroetsch Nicole Smith Mark Tennant <hr/> Suresh Daljeet	Alain Bureau Laura Farr Dan Smith Kristeen Sprague <hr/> Ned Kuruc		Chad Collins* (I) Stewart Klazinga <hr/>	Tom Jackson (I) <hr/> Timothy Taylor Brad Young	Kristopher Clowater Karen Grace-Uggenti <hr/> Roland Schneider
Any candidates in this category have either proved, through Council votes and actions that they are generally not supportive of labour's initiatives. Alternately, their responses on surveys have indicated their willingness to vote against labour's interests in the next term of Council.	Paul Fromm* Edward Graydon George Rusich	Harrison White	John Vail					Esther Pauls*
*Did Not Complete the Survey	Phil Ryerson, Todd May, Carlos Gomes, Ricky Tavares, Vito Sgro, Henry Geissler, Michael Pattison, Mark Wozny	Syed Bakht, Richard Massie, Sharon Anderson, Jordan Geertsma	James Unsworth, Diane Chiarelli	Keith Beck, Tony Lemma, Milena Balta, Brendan Kavanaugh, Amanda Salonen, Steven Paul Denault, Stephen Rowe	Rod Douglas			Dan McIntyre, Adam Dirani, Steve Clarke, Steve Benson

Election Position	Ward 8	Ward 9	Ward 10	Ward 11	Ward 12	Ward 13	Ward 14	Ward 15
Choosing any of these candidates would generally be positive for the labour community in Hamilton. If they are incumbents, it generally means they have a proven track record of supporting labour initiatives. If they are not an incumbent, it means that their survey responses not only met the requirement of supporting our municipal concerns, but that they also understood the issues. (alphabetically)						Rich Gelder	Bryan Wilson
We've divided this section into two parts: On the top, candidates who indicate they support labour, but have not always given us rationale or action to back it up. On the bottom, candidates who say they're supportive of something, but either haven't backed it up with their rationale or actions. (alphabetically)	<hr/> Eve Adams John Paul Danko Steve Ruddick Anthony Simpson Colleen Wicken	<hr/> David Ford Lakhwinder Singh Multani	<hr/> Louie Milojevic Maria Pearson (I)	<hr/> Brenda Johnson* (I) Waleed Shewayhat	<hr/> Kevin Marley	<hr/> Kevin Gray Arlene Vanderbeek (I)	<hr/> Terry Whitehead (I) Roslyn French-Sanges	<hr/> Judi Partridge (I) -----
Any candidates in this category have either proved, through Council votes and actions that they are generally not supportive of labour's initiatives. Alternately, their responses on surveys have indicated their willingness to vote against labour's interests in the next term of Council.		Brad Clark	Ian Thompson		Mike Bell Lloyd Ferguson* (I)	John Mykytyshyn*	Vincent Samuel*
*Did Not Complete the Survey	Christopher Climie	Doug Conley (I), Peter Lanza	Jeff Beattie		John Scime, Miranda Reis	Pamela Mitchell, Gaspere Bonomo, John Roberts	Robert Iszkula	Susan McKechnie

HDLC Municipal TRUSTEE Candidate Positioning Chart (as at 23 August 2018 - subject to change)

	Ward 1&2	Ward 3	Ward 5	Ward 6	Ward 8&14	Ward 9&10	Ward 11&12	Ward 13	Ward 15
Choosing any of these candidates would generally be positive for the labour community in Hamilton. If they are incumbents, it generally means they have a proven track record of supporting labour initiatives. (alphabetically)	Christine Bingham (I)		Todd White (I)	Jay Edington		Wayne Marston	Alex Johnstone (I)		Janet Creet
This section is for candidates who indicate they support some labour issues of concern to affiliates, but not others. (alphabetically)
Any candidates in this category have indicated their willingness to vote against labour's interests in the next term of Council.
Other candidates not currently considered by an education affiliate to the HDLC.	Rahimuddin Chowdhury	Chris Parkinson, Jocelynn Viera, Livia Jones, Gail Tessier, Marlene A. Thomas, Maria Felix Miller	Jason McLaughlin, Carole Paikin Miller	Kathy Archer (I), Eamon O'Donnell	Damin Starr, Rochelle Butler, Erica Villabroza, Becky Buck, Yousaf Malik	Cam Galindo	Blake Hambly, Bruce Carnegie	Noor Nizam, Sukhi Dhillon, Chris Parr, Paul Tut, Steven James Laur	Penny Deathe (I)

Note: Wards 4 and 7 trustee candidates have been acclaimed.